employers.

(2) Where a return has been filed under sub-section (2) of section 7, but any tax or interest is found due on the basis of such return, then, an intimation shall be sent to the person specifying the sum so payable and such intimation, shall be deemed to be a notice of demand issued and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

(3) (a) If the designated officer is not satisfied that the return filed is correct and complete, he shall serve upon the employer a notice requiring him to attend in person or through an authorized representative, and to produce accounts and papers in support of the return, on a date specified in the notice.

(b) The designated officer shall, on examination of accounts and papers, assess the amount of tax payable by the employer.

(c) If the employer fails to comply with the terms of the notice, or if in the opinion of the designated officer the accounts and papers are incorrect or incomplete or unreliable, the said designated officer shall, after such inquiry as he deems fit or otherwise, assess the tax due, to the best of his judgment.

(4) If an employer has without reasonable cause failed to get himself registered or being registered has failed to file any return, the designated officer shall, after giving the employer a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after holding such inquiry as he deems fit, or otherwise pass an order assessing the amount of tax due, to the best of his judgment :

Provided that the assessment under this section can be made within a period of three years from the last date of filing of return or the actual date of filing of return, whichever is later.

(5) The amount of tax so assessed shall be paid within fifteen days of receipt of the notice of demand from the designated officer.

Assessment of other persons.

9. (1) If the designated officer is satisfied that the return filed by any person is correct and complete, he shall accept the return.

(2) Where a return has been filed under sub-section (1) of section 7, or in response to the notice under sub-section (6) of section 7, but any tax or interest is found due on the basis of such return, then, an intimation shall be sent to the person specifying the sum so payable and such intimation, shall be deemed to be a notice of demand issued and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly.

(3) If a person liable to obtain a certificate of enrolment under sub-section (2) of section 6 has failed to get himself enrolled or, being enrolled, has failed to make payment of the whole or any part of the amount of tax as required by or under this Act, the designated officer shall, after giving such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, and after holding such enquiry as he deems fit, or otherwise, determine the amount of tax due from him, and if such amount cannot be determined properly on the basis of the available material, determine the same to the best of his judgment :

Provided that the assessment under this section can be made within a period of three years from the last date of filing of return or the actual date of filing of return, whichever is later.

(4) The amount of tax due, so determined, shall be paid within fifteen days of receipt of the notice of demand from the designated officer.

(5) The Commissioner or the designated officer, within a view to ascertain the correctness of the returns, may make special assessment of any of the returns filed, documents or information submitted by a person, subject to such conditions and in such manner, as may be prescribed.

(6) For the purpose of special assessment under sub-section (5), the Commissioner or any designated officer, may, after due notice to the person, processed to examine the records and the related documents of the person.

STATEMENTS OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Punjab State Development Tax Bill, 2018 is proposed to provide high priority on utilisation of tax receipts in different Welfare schemes and development works related to progress of the state. This Bill seeks to establish a regulatory framework which will provide clear guidelines for all aspects for different Welfare schemes and development works from the conception to the implementation.

MANPREET SINGH BADAL,
Finance Minister, Punjab.

FINANCIAL MEMORANDUM

With the introduction of State Development Tax Bill 2018, it is proposed to impose/levy tax on professions, trades, callings and employment in the State. Many States of Republic of India have already imposed Development tax. In terms of the powers that vests with the State Government on the amendments through this bill, it has been decided to remit the entire receipt of Development Tax levied and collected by the Department of Excise and Taxation in the Treasury in the Consolidated Fund of the State and to provide a budgetary grant to the Punjab Infrastructure Development Fund, within such period and such amount as it may consider necessary. The remittance of receipt of tax will create more revenue into the Consolidated Fund of the State which shall help in improving the financial position of the State to help it leverage funds.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Section 23 of "The Punjab State Development Tax Bill, 2018" empowers to the State Government to make rules to carry out the purpose of this Act. The powers sought are necessary for the proper implementation of the provisions of the Act and are normal in nature.

The Governor has, in pursuance of clause (1) and (3) of Article 207 of the Constitution of India, recommended to the Punjab Legislative Assembly, the introduction and consideration of the Bill.

CHANDIGARH :
The 26th March, 2018.

SHASHI LAKHANPAL MISHRA,
Secretary.

---

N.B.— The above Bill was published in the Punjab Government Gazette (Extraordinary), dated the 26th March, 2018 under the proviso to rule 121 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Punjab Vidhan Sabha (Punjab Legislative Assembly).
